Jesus Was A Terrorist

Jesus was a terrorist Enemy of the state That's what the Romans labeled him So he was put to death

He died for his beliefs What's changed today?

Today bible-thumping cannibals Reap money from his name Buy cable networks & power With old ladies' checks

If Jesus saw Pat Robertson What do you think he'd say?

Tax-free they re-write our laws And sick 'em on you Women don't control their bodies TV preachers do

Censor everything from bathing suits To science books From the schoolroom to the bedroom They want our thoughts - or else

They treat us like the Romans Used to treat the Christians Even some churchgoing folks are scared

Modern catacombs of fear Built with money, power and threats Rock'n'roll is labeled porn Sell a record, you're under arrest

Instead of fighting AIDS They try to stop us having sex They brag that they won't quit Til they take dominion over our lives

Is freedom of speech such a terrorist act Is spiritual peace such a satanic threat Believe what you want But we'll fight to keep Out heads from being cemented in your sand. Jello Biafra
