

Momma

Jem

Dry your eyes, honey stop your tears it's alright
Momma's here will be by your side, all night
Brush your teeth darling eat your greens to grow strong
I know it's a pain, but you'll thank me some day

Off to school then it's college soon, grown up
Think you know so much more than me, don't ya
Heartbreaks making my heart ache for you my dear
Whatever you choose to do, I'll always love you

Momma it's just not the same
Without you here in LA
I'll chauffeur you right from the plane
Promise to come back again

Real world, okay store your stuff and don't fear
If all else fails there's a room for you right here
Make your music, try your best for me
How can I help, just tell me what you need

Momma it's just not the same
Without you here in LA
I'll book you a squash court
And hike in the hills
If you promise to come back soon

You get only one
I'm so happy it's you
We're on this crazy road
All together with you

Momma I just wanna say
I love you and will always
The least I can do
Is write this for you
And tahnk you for all
All, of our days
