

Opposites Attract

Jeniferever

A few seconds of contact, through our eyes Told us that they weren't good enough to hide the true meaning of the words that poured forth out of
out of our mouths.

Strangers became friends as we Walked through the Landscapes created and touched the little that the little that was left of the love imagined But you see these days we

you see these days we

hold so tight
to anything that occupies our thoughts
and keep us from moving forward
We've reached the point where we become what we are
Two parts of the same heart.
hold so tight
hold so tight
