

Better

Jennette McCurdy

In a corner of my room
There's a pile of things that still belong to you
And I'll get them back
But here tonight I'll go through them
One by one without a fight

And i don't care if I cry
It should hurt you said goodbye
And I have the right to drag it out and make it worst
I'm gonna take my time till' I wake up one morning
And I find that I'll feel better

And outside my window there's a moon
And it's saying don't get over you too soon so I keep breaking until I'm done

And I get it through my head
You weren't the one

And i don't care if I cry
It should hurt you said goodbye
And I have the right to drag it out and make it worst
I'm gonna take my time till' I wake up one morning
And I find that I'll feel better
Better

Till I look at your pictures
And ran out of tears
And your not all I'm thinking about
Till I don't turn around
Hold my breath for the sound of you
Saying my name out loud

ohhh ohhh ohhhhhh

And i don't care if I cry
It should hurt you said goodbye
And I have the right to drag it out and make it worst
I'm gonna take my time till' I wake up one morning
And I find that I'll feel better
Better
