

Sucker For Smiles

Jennifer Chung

CHORUS:

Don't look my way
Don't you dare gimme that face
'Cause behind those pretty brown eyes
I'm sure that there are many thoughts comprised
I've played many games before too
Way before I even met you
I know what kinda guy you are
I know your style
'Cause I'm a sucker for smiles

Today you caught, caught me by surprise
A confidence that could lead me to my very demise
I held onto my heart, the one that's been wounded before
Held it's glass like fragile essence
Can't be damaged anymore

CHORUS

I'm happy where I am, even without you around
Don't need some mere mortal love
'Cause without it, I'm still heaven bound
Though I like the sound of it
You possibly being my man
Gonna stop these thoughts, distractions
While I'm here, while I still can

CHORUS

I've heard it all before
All of those sweet things
All of the tricky lines
And all of the lying schemes
I've heard it all before
All of those sweet things
All of the tricky lines
And all of the lying schemes

CHORUS

'Cause I'm a sucker for smiles

I've heard it all before
All of those sweet things
So can I trust that you will not be just as mean?
