

Got no flowers in the pot
Not one card in the mailbox
There's no one for me that will say
"Baby, Happy Valentines Day"

Got no reservations made
Not one float in my parade
From all lovers, I just can't escape
They say, "Baby, Happy Valentines Day"

I'll find other things to do
Accept one over two
Won't let this day define these feelings of mine
No need for valentine
No need for valentine

Got no chocolates for me
Not one secretly admiring
There's nobody that whispers my way
"Baby, Happy Valentines Day"

I'll find other things to do
Accept one over two
Won't let this day define these feelings of mine
No need for valentine

I am more than okay
Love the same old same
Single life is divine until good due time
I won't need valentine
I don't need valentine

My own heart is all mine
