

Get Yourself Back

Jennifer Hanson

Julie called me up at work
She said, she finally dumped that jerk for good
And now the wedding's off

She said, she's gonna keep that ring
And maybe even hook that thing for cash
And go blow it all

And it's alright, yeah
Baby it's alright
To let yourself go, hey, you gotta know
I'm alright with that

It's alright, yeah
Baby it's alright
To let yourself go just as long as you know
How to get yourself back

Eight hours later here we are
I quit countin' all the bars that we
Had been tearin' through

Yeah, Julie went a little nuts
And I was right there with her but, hey that's What good friends do

And it's alright, yeah
Baby it's alright
To let yourself go, hey, you gotta know
I'm alright with that

It's alright, yeah
Baby it's alright
To let yourself go just as long as you know
How to get yourself back

I say, if you're good at landing
Go ahead and fly
It's gonna be alright, yeah

And it's alright, yeah
Baby it's alright
To let yourself go, hey, you gotta know
I'm alright with that

It's alright, yeah
Baby it's alright
To let yourself go just as long as you know
How to get yourself back

Let yourself go just as long as you know
How to get yourself back, yeah
