

Dear Ben

Jennifer Lopez

[Spoken:] You're perfect.

I just can't control myself, I can't be with no one else, seems i'm addicted to the way you like to touch me I don't think they understand, why I love at your command, from the words you speak, so deep about it's need I have to have you,

[Chorus:]

I love you, you're perfect, a manifestation of my dreams,
you make my body feel,
about a million different things

I think God made you for me, a mix of passionate fidelities, baby your so complete, I write this song to let you know, that you will always be my lust, my love, my man, my child, my friend, and my king,

[Chorus:]

I love you, you're perfect,
a manifestation of my dreams,
you make my body feel,
about a million different things
theres no way i'd leave you, it is not a reality, sometimes I feel like I'm living in a fantasy.
