

Couldn't Find Another Man

Jennifer Love Hewitt

If I knew that this would all
Come down to a sad goodbye
I would see it through
Till the tears burned my eyes
Cause the loving that you give to me
So true and profound
Is the sweetest gift I have ever found

If I had to fight fire
You know I'd find a way
For a love that is sacred
I would fight until my last day

I couldn't find another man
Who loves me like you do
I couldn't hold another hand that holds me quite like you
Such a love is heaven-blessed
Couldn't find another man

Only you can set my heart on fire
Or fill my life with pain
And no matter if I laugh or cry
I love you just the same
Cause the moment that I hold you close
I see in your eyes
With a silent stare, you turn your eyes

If I lost every pleasure
Of silver and gold
I would still find my treasure
With you there to hold

If I lost every pleasure
Of silver and gold
I would still find my treasure
With you there to hold
