

Heart Wars

Jennifer Rush

We're just two people fighting like nations
Is this the state of all human relations
Words are like weapons, take aim and fire
Love loses reason in the name of desire

Heart wars I surrender
Let's let some sunshine steal all the thunder
We better change 'cause it's breaking us under
Heart wars I surrender to love

How can two people call themselves lovers
Giving and taking abuse from each other
This situation needs rearranging
How can we love when we waste ourselves waging

Heart wars I surrender
Let's let some sunshine steal all the thunder
We better change 'cause it's breaking us under
Heart wars I surrender to love
Heart wars I surrender to love
Heart wars I surrender to love

We stand alone with our pride as protection
We gotta find a different direction
Reach past our minds and end this destruction
Are we the world or the world our reflection

Heart wars I surrender
Let's let some sunshine steal all the thunder
We better change 'cause it's breaking us under
Heart wars I surrender to love
Heart wars I surrender to love
Heart wars I surrender to love
