

I Can't Say No

Jennifer Rush

I can't say no
Now that I've found you (there's)
Nothing I'd rather do
I can't say no
Made up my mind (because)
Nobody else will do
I can't say no
Now that I've found you (there's)
Nothing I'd rather do
I can't say no
Made up my mind (because)
Nobody else will do

You get to me - I wanna go
But then again I just don't know
That's when I realize I better
Take it nice and slow

Sometimes I feel like running away
'Cause I know what this heart's gonna say
"Let yourself go
It's time to let your feelings flow, you know"

I can't say no
Now that I've found you (there's)
Nothing I'd rather do
I can't say no
Made up my mind (because)
Nobody else will do
I can't say no
Now that I've found you (there's)
Nothing I'd rather do
I can't say no
Made up my mind (because)
Nobody else will do

You talk to me - you know I see
In front of me what I've been missing
Don't need to say more
'Cause here I am and here I'll stay

I'll give you all I've got to give
So take me like you take a gift
And I will do the same
Or this love might fade away (before it starts)

I can't say no
Now that I've found you (there's)
Nothing I'd rather do
I can't say no
Made up my mind (because)
Nobody else will do
I can't say no
Now that I've found you (there's)
Nothing I'd rather do
I can't say no
Made up my mind (because)

Nobody else will do

It's true it's you or no one
Every waking hour I'm spinning 'round
Gonna let your love unfold
Gonna just to let myself go

I can't say no
Now that I've found you (there's)
Nothing I'd rather do
I can't say no
Made up my mind (because)
Nobody else will do
I can't say no
Now that I've found you (there's)
Nothing I'd rather do
I can't say no
Made up my mind (because)
Nobody else will do
