

More Than Words

Jennifer Rush

Sometimes I'm amazed when I
Get caught up in the thought of you
It seems some days it's all too much
To take no matter how you try

No dream is far beyond your touch
It makes me want to cry oh my
But never too far in your arms

'Cause when I feel you holding me close
And hear you whispering low
I want to show you with more
Than words can say
I love you with more than words can say

Look into my eyes and you'll see
Just what you mean to me
Tried to write a letter telling you
And sealed with a kiss

'Cause when you get right down to it
Oh I am still mesmerized by you
Everytime

I can feel you holding me close
Hearing you whispering low
I want to show you with more
Than words can say
I love you with more than words can say

To be near you it's all I ask
To give to you something you know will last
I want to show you with more
Than words can say
I love you with more than words can say

I love you more....
hehe....oh

Just to feel you holding me close
To hear you whispering low
I want to show you with more
Than words can say
I love you with more than words can say

When I am near you all that I ask
Is to give to you something you know will last
I want to show you with more
Than words can say
I love you with more than words can say
