

Rain Coming Down On Me

Jennifer Rush

Shadows do call in darkness
Are they a warning from out of sight
I won't deny you are the test
That tears away at my wounded pride

Sometimes you take me
So far away I wanna run and hide
You're trying to break me
Shaking me up each time you turn out the light

But hold on, oh, oh
Oh rain coming down on me
Oh, oh, oh rain coming down on me

And I'm going wild and your hold me
Now it's the silence I put on hold
I'm only primed to tenny
Though in your moods never leave me cold

Each time you take me
So far away, I run but I can't hide
You're trying to break me
Shaking me up each time you turn out the light

But hold on, oh, oh
Oh rain coming down on me
Oh, oh, oh rain coming down on me

It's true these walls they're too ten
Swearing this hardwood prime, no
Knowing with you standing here
It's just a race against time, whoa, whoa

Oh, oh, oh rain coming down on me

Oh, oh, oh rain coming down on me, baby
Oh, oh, oh rain coming down on me
Oh, oh, oh rain coming down on me
Oh, oh, oh rain coming down on me
