

Sidekick

Jennifer Rush

Ooh, she don't love you boy, don't love you boy

Who's that playin' with the dead end boys
Cool black leather lookin' for her toys
Snakin' on by makin' all that noise
Who's your sidekick
Who's your sidekick
Who's she walking like a fire queen
Builds you up into a head of steam
Betcha she thinks she's got the best of me
Who's your sidekick
Ain't you walkin' on a high wire ?
Ain't you playin' with a live wire
When she goes

I'll be there when you fall
There when you fall
There when you call
There when she stalls
I'll be there when you call
There when you fall
Don't let that one fool ya
Ooh, she don't love you boy, don't love you boy

She's just temporary flash and trash
I got something here you know will last
Dontcha make me crazy
Dontcha make me ask
Who's your sidekick tell me
When she tells you she's your one fire
I can tell ya she's a stone liar
When she goes

I'll be there when you fall
There when you fall
There when you call
There when she stalls
I'll be there when you call
There when you fall
Don't let that one fool ya
(Don't let that one fool ya)

You know that you love me baby
You know that you love me always, ah
You know that I love you baby
Dontcha, ahhh...

Ain't you walkin' on a high wire ?
Ain't you playin' with a live wire
When she goes

I'll be there when you fall
There when you fall
There when you call
There when she stalls
I'll be there when you call
There when you fall

Don't let that one fool ya

I'll be there when you fall

There when you fall

There when you call

There when she stalls

I'll be there when you call

There when you fall
