

Silent Killer

Jennifer Rush

You walked in the room
I saw visions unfold
What your future holds
Is yet untold
He takes all the best of me
Only the best
Just to turn around and
Choose a nest
So right now in among my mind
It will only be a matter of time

You better keep him in check
Cause he's a silent killer
Think it out twice, its a silent pain
You better keep him in check
Cause he's a silent killer
With a silent pain

He treats you right and makes you feel so nice
I'm here to tell you
It's a disguise
Say you've never been the one
That's left behind
Better back up quick and change your mind
Take a look behind those eyes
Let me tell you you're a sacrifice

You better keep him in check
Cause he's a silent killer
Think it out twice, its a silent pain
You better keep him in check
Cause he's a silent killer
With a silent pain

You better keep him in check
Cause he's a silent killer
Think it out twice, its a silent pain
You better keep him in check
Cause he's a silent killer
With a silent pain
