

Testify With My Heart

Jennifer Rush

It's fading fast, all I have gone to Nothing that I hated more
Than feeling unsure
Tell me what it is
Keeping my heart open
Never wanted anything more
To do with before

Does it mean I'm moving to your side
This time I'm laying it right on the line
Could it be that it won't backfire
That this is nothing just clear out of sight

I wanna testify with my heart
No matter what else I need to know
I wanna testify with my heart
Not with my mind that might say no

I've come down to
The point of no return
Unlike time there's no pretending
I am surrendering
Warnings from the past
They're strong but don't last
Sometimes theres no shadow of doubt
Don't want a way out

No matter the more I seem to do
I am still left weak for you
Gonna testify with my heart
Never before been so torn apart

I wanna testify with my heart
No matter what else I need to know
I wanna testify with my heart
Not with my mind that might say no

I wanna testify with this heart
Whatever it is you want just say so
I wanna testify with this heart
Theres nothing else that I need to know

I wanna testify with my heart
No matter what else I need to know
I wanna testify with my heart
Not with my mind that might say no
