

The End of a Journey

Jennifer Rush

Could we lose each other Even when we're
Worlds apart
I can close my eyes
I see you standing there now Feel you
Holding you when I'm Not strong enough to Try
The end of a journey Back in your arms again
There's no place I'd rather be Than right here
By your side
The end of a journey Here in your arms
Tonight You'll reach out to hold me now
Like you'll never let go Please don't ever let
Go
You made me believe it's true now
Wherever we are or how far Wanna see you
In my dreams
When that feeling lifts me up Each and every
Time we touch I wanna give myself to you
The end of a journey Back in your arms again
There's no place I'd rather be Than right here
By your side
The end of a journey Back in your arms
Tonight You'll reach out to hold me now
Like you'll never let go Please don't ever let
Go
I believe it's forever - hold me now, Make
This moment last
Till the end of time
The end of a journey I'm back in your arms
Again There's no place I'd rather be Than Right here by your side
The end of a journey Here in your arms
Tonight Just reach out to hold me now
Like you'll never let go Please don't ever let Go Don't let go
