

Walk Away

Jennifer Rush

Put your heart in motion
Your eyes have cried a thousand tears
He's hurt you more than you know
Get yourself away from here
You wonder why your life is worth his wounded pride
Pull your head up from your Hands and say goodbye

Walk away and don't look back
Walk away it's all behind you now
There's nothing more to say
Don't give in
Don't lose heart that way

When you face the mirror
You only see your heart's regret
There's a thousand miles up ahead
That start with a single step
You were never born to hide
In silent shame
There's not a woman alive
Who could play his game

Walk away and don't look back
Walk away it's all behind you now
There's nothing more to say
Don't give in
Don't lose heart that way

Some scars heal
And some scars never fade
He shattered your dreams
Now a dream can help you walk away

Walk away and don't look back
Walk away it's all behind you now
There's nothing more to say
Don't give in
Don't lose heart that way
