

Capture Me

Jeremy Camp

You search inside the deepest parts
You radiate the darkness in my heart
Oh, I can't hide no more
You took this life that once was frail
And gave a strength where hopelessness won't prevail
And there's life more abundantly

Your beauty Lord, I know it captures me
Your sweet embrace, it brings me to my knees
Oh, You capture me, oh Lord, You capture me
You opened up my heart and made a home in me
You lifted up the weight the world has placed on me
Oh, You capture me, oh Lord, You capture me

You brought me joy that words can't speak
You gave a truth where lies will never reach
Oh, I won't fight no more
You gave me peace from this life of fear
Never alone at every grasp you are near
Now there's life more abundantly, oh

Your beauty, Lord, I know it captures me
Your sweet embrace, it brings me to my knees
Oh, You capture me, oh Lord, You capture me
You opened up my heart and made a home in me
You lifted up the weight the world has placed on me
Oh, You capture me, oh Lord, You capture me

Well, I can feel Your touch, I can feel Your heart
And Your fullness flowing over
Your ways of mercy over me

Your beauty, Lord, I know it captures me
Your sweet embrace, it brings me to my knees
Oh, the love You show, it pours all over me
Oh Lord, You capture me, oh Lord, You capture me
You opened up my heart and made a home in me
You lifted up the weight the world has placed on me
Oh, You capture me, oh Lord, You capture me, now

I can feel Your touch, I can feel Your heart
Oh, Your beauty Lord, it captures me
I can feel Your touch, I can feel Your heart
(Oh, Your beauty Lord, oh, Your beauty Lord)
Oh, it captures me
