

Here I Am

Jeremy Camp

You are waiting for us to move
There is so much more
Deeper than I've ever known, known before
When we draw near
I see the mysteries of who You are
Reveal my heart to be renewed
Until nothing's left but You
Only You

Here I am
Falling to my knees I'm crying out again
Jesus, take me deeper than I've ever been
Lord, here I am
All of me, reach into the places that I cannot see
Desperately, I need You to move in me
Here I am

You are waiting for me to see
All of who You are
God, You are so patient with me
Day after day
Come living water, let me drink from Your amazing grace
Reveal my heart to be renewed
Until nothing's left but You
Only You

Here I am
Falling to my knees I'm crying out again
Jesus, take me deeper than I've ever been
Lord, here I am
All of me reach into the places that I cannot see
Desperately, I need You to move me
Here I am

Let the things of Earth lose their hold on me
Let Your river flow, You are breaking me free
I will lift my hands in Your presence God
Make me like You are

Here I am
Falling to my knees I'm crying out again
All of me reaching to the places that I cannot see
Desperately, I need You to move me
Here I am

Here I am
Everything surrendered
I am Yours
Nothing else that matters
Laying down every one of my fears
God, won't You
God, won't You move me
Here I am
