

I Will Follow

Jeremy Camp

Though the desert be before me & there's no relief in sight
Though the enemy is breathin', all the lies into my mind
You will always carry me! Until my dyin' days
What You have for me is worth it cuz I'll see You face to face!

I will follow, follow You whereva You go
And I will listen to the very promises I know
You are with me always with me, keeper of my soul
I will follow, follow You whereva You go

And the day is comin' quickly when, You break open the sky
And the armies all around You will be conquerin' the night
You gather all the children that are callin' out Your name
When the troubles are the here and now, I know it's not in vain

You have my heart
I'll follow all the way
