

Only In You

Jeremy Camp

There's a place
Where thirsty souls
Find living water
And thirst no more
And there's a place
Where weary hearts
Find perfect rest
In mercy's arms
In mercy's arms

Only in You, hey, only in You, hey
Here in Your presence
You're making us new
Only in You, hey, only in You, hey
Nothing compares to the life we find only in You

There's a place
Where fear can't stand
Where the broken down
Need healing hands
And there's a place
Where glory's light
Makes shackles fall
And shadows hide, and shadows hide

Our strong tower
Our great refuge
In the shadow of Your wings
Halleluiah, we have found
The source of everything we need
