

So In Love

Jeremy Camp

So many times I've fallen
So many ways I've failed you
So many times I've stepped out on my own

I know I'm undeserving
But I feel You are preserving
The only good that I have shown

The only word that I can bring
Are these very words I sing
To sing to You now

Cause I am so in love with You
There's nothing else I choose
You've stolen my heart
Yes, I'm all for You

Nothing can separate me
From the grace that You gave free
I know You'll never let me go
Even though You know my frailties
Every single thing about me
You show the greatest love that's known

The only word that I can bring
Are these very words I sing
I sing to You now

I am so in love with You
There's nothing else I choose
You've stolen my heart
Yes, I'm all for You

I am so in love with You
There's nothing else I choose
You've stolen my heart
Yes, I'm all for You now

Time and time again You show
The depth and love that You bestow
I never fully understand
It's too great for me to know
But I always try to bring
I try to bring You everything

I am so in love with You
There's nothing else I choose
You've stolen my heart
Yes, I'm all for you now

I am so in love with You
There's nothing else I choose
You've stolen my heart
Yes, I'm all for You now
