

City Tonight

Jeremy Enigk

Am I late to the kingdom of love?
To ride worlds on the seat of your car?
You relate to the things that you've tried.
I'm not home any time you are.

But I'm moving close to the soon realize, but I'm holding to the city's disguise.
But I'm holding to the city tonight, cut through the city tonight.

Am I late to the kingdom of love?
To ride worlds on the seat of your car.
Who relates to the things that you try?
I'm not home any time that you are.
Because I'm moving close
I want to take back control.
When I mean nothing at all, I want to see it explode.
Carry your building ideas of counterculture enough to beat my senses through.

Am I late to the kingdom of love?
To wide worlds on the seat of your car.
Who relates to the things that you try?
I'm not home any time that you are.
But I'm moving close.

I want to take back control.
When I mean nothing at all, I want to see it explode.
Carry your buildings idea of counterculture enough to make my story.
