

In A Look

Jeremy Enigk

Where are you now? Where are you going?
See you coming back again
A magic world in a look
A magic world in a look of eyes

Where are you now? heart a racing
See how you're running back again
A magic world in a look
A magic world in a look of eyes

Carry you now bearing on shoulders
See you coming back again
A magic world in a look of
A magic world in a look of eyes

And the sunlight stay unbroken
Tears can just feeling alive
Shadow over age of innocence
Somehow keep falling apart

Don't tell me you changed your mind | x2

See your eyes in the northern wind
I'd escape when you're running through
I've a magic world in a look
A magic world in a look of eyes
