

River To Sea

Jeremy Enigk

River to sea, there we will be
I've found my place where I have longed to be
I can't erase any mistake
But I can outgrow, rivers of love will flow
Turn around, your life is in your hands

Nowhere to be, I found plenty of things to be Unleashing hell each time the answers fell
I cannot change any man's fate
But I can make known forgiving waters of love
So turn around, your life is in your hands

It don't mean you won't wake from the dead
It don't mean you can't
It don't mean you can't wake from the dead
Hell, it don't mean you, you can't
