

Anything

Greene, Jeremy

She was my everything
She was all I had
She was everything I needed in my life
And I was her world

I knew when I met her
I would die a thousand times and make it right

I would give anything and I mean anything
If I could have her back in my life

I tried to go my way
I left you all alone
Never knowing that you really were the one
There's nothing that you did
But I was just so wrong
Now that I'm awake the damage has been done

I'd give anything
And I mean anything just to have you back in my life

Late at night I would run away
To think about forever cause I never felt this way
I didn't wanna lose
The freedom that I had
But I lost everything and now I want you back
(What did I do
I lost everything I had)

Late at night I would run away
I guess I was afraid
To think about forever cause I never felt this way
I didn't wanna lose
The freedom that I had
But I lost everything and now I want you back

I would give anything and I mean anything
If I could have her back in my life
