

Beautiful Splinter

Greene, Jeremy

Give me five minutes
I'm out of my head
Gotta get out of bed
Try to pull it together

The smell of your perfume it brings back the time
Yeah it fucks with my mind
Cause I'm trying to get over

All this yearing there's a burnin
And my whole world just keeps turnin
Cause I get so wrapped up in it
And I know that I can't quit it
Damn it's twisted how you bleed me
Cause I know that you don't need me
But I find myself just sayin your name

This is the way that I feel
Now that your here
I start to remember
That I want you again
Yeah your under my skin
Your diggin in, like a beautiful splinter

Try to act normal like nothing is wrong
Like I'm trying to move on
But I know you know better
Losin my cool when I see you around
Yeah it's tearing me down
But to you it's what ever

All this yearing there's a burnin
And my whole world just keeps turnin
Cause I get so wrapped up in it
And I know that I can't quit it
Damn it's twisted how you bleed me
Cause I know that you don't need me
But I find myself just sayin your name

This is the way that I feel
Now that your here, I start to remember
That I want you again
Yeah your under my skin your diggin in
Like a beautiful splinter

This is the way that I feel
Now that your here, I start to remember
That I want you again
Yeah your under my skin your diggin in
Like a beautiful splinter

This is the way that I feel
Now that your here, I start to remember
That I want you again
Yeah your under my skin your diggin in
Like a beautiful splinter

Whoaoooo whoaooo whoaooo whoaooooo
Whoaoooo whoaooo whoaooo whoaooooo

This is the way that I feel
Now that your here, I start to remember
That I want you again
Yeah your under my skin your diggin in
Like a beautiful splinter.
