

Soldier

Greene, Jeremy

I've been on this battlefield
I wave my love like surrenderin' today
I feel I've been pretty tough
Back and forth, now I'm going against

Because the bomb start falling
And I can't find cover
And I know you got my heart in your aim
In this war, we're still lovers
And I can't recover
My heart won't let me sustain

I'll be your soldier, be your soldier
Lay down my life and everything that I got

I'll be your soldier, be your soldier
Fightin' on the battlefield for your heart

Girl, I'm ready for war
Girl, I'm ready for war

I, I'm ready for war
Baby you can come and ride me til I have no wheels
Got a nigga in a zone and I gone gone gone just off a half a pill
Man that ass so fat from the back
Make a nigga really just wanna grab a field
I could be your soldier
Now welcome to my battlefield

I go by the name Soufboi
No he not like them other guys
Them guys, they lie
But I'm down to go head first off up in your thighs
Won the war for your love no hell man
Oh God damn, I almost died
And then she's so deep
Now it's time for me to sing a lullaby
Twelve bar so hard
You ain't never in your life
Seen another nigga out here like me
So raw, 2 bra, no draws
I guess they really wanna dite me
Wifey, I'd catch a bulletproof [? ]
I'm your soldier baby
Time to deploy

I'll be your soldier, be your soldier
Lay down my life and everything that I got

I'll be your soldier, be your soldier
Fightin' on the battlefield for your heart

Girl, I'm ready for war
