

Lazy Bones

Jeremy Messersmith

He plays all night, then sleeps all day
Waves at the dawn
With a stretch and a yawn
He has to go to work at eight
But he might have a cough
So he's sleeping it off

Lazy bones
Never worked so hard
Well, I hope you never break
Lazy bones
Oh, you're working so hard

He sleeps like he's got something to prove
Somewhere to explore
With a wink and a snore
He's at the end of misspent youth
Just a blur in a dream
Too quick to be seen
