

Tomorrow

Jeremy Messersmith

Will I see you again?
Same time tomorrow
Well, I hope so
Let's watch the midnight sky
I won't say goodbye
Until tomorrow

Yesterday is gone
Today is almost over
Come on let's stay up late
We'll turn our today
Into tomorrow

Today is all we've got
A moment here then not
And if tomorrow never comes
I'll be standing with the one I love

It's time to say goodnight
And then you kiss me
Sweetly
Let's watch the morning break
Some things just can't wait until tomorrow
