

Tourniquet

Jeremy Messersmith

When I see you crying
If your tears run out
I will lasso you a thundercloud
When you're tired of trying
I won't stay away
I don't care what other people say

When there's nothing left to do
I will pull you close, wrap my arms around you

No, I won't let you slip
I'll be your tourniquet
No, I won't ever quit
I'll be your tourniquet

When you've been forgotten
Labor left for lost
Cared for naught, knocked down, and written off
When you feel like dying
Think you won't be missed
I will be there in an ambulance

I will pull you close, wrap my arms around you

No, I won't let you slip
I'll be your tourniquet
No, I won't ever quit
I'll be your tourniquet

No, I won't let you slip
I'll be your tourniquet
No, I won't ever quit
I'll be your tourniquet

No, I won't let you slip
I'll be your tourniquet
No, I won't ever quit
I'll be your tourniquet
