

I Need You More Now Than Ever

Jermaine Jackson

Your the sun that shines when clouds are in the way
Your the light of love to brighten up each and every day
And you care oh when no one cares at all
You are there when I need you
All I have to do is call and

I need you more, more now than ever
I need you more, as the days go by
I need you more, more now than ever
Oh without your love I couldn't live
I wouldn't even try...

Your the birds that sing
You bring love song to me
Your the sweetest rose that will ever ever be
And you you make the world seem right
When everything is all wrong
And when I'm weak only you can make me strong
That's why

I need you more, more now than ever
I need you more, as the days go by
I need you more, more now than ever
Without your love I couldn't live
I wouldn't even try...

Those softly whispered nicknames that only you would know
I'll never hear again
If you you should ever go

I need you more, more now than ever
I need you more, as the days go by
I need you more, more now than ever
Without your love I couldn't live
I wouldn't even try

Whoa oh oh I need you I need you I need you
More now than ever
Whoa oh oh
I need you, I need you, I need you
More now than ever
Whoa oh oh
I need you I need you I need you
More now, than ever...
