

Jody

Jermaine Stewart

Everybody wants Jody...
Everybody wants Jody...
Everybody wants you, girl...

Everybody wants you, baby.

Diamonds on the left,
Stars on the right.
Be my girl from early in the night.

She don't need protection,
She don't have to fight.
She just says she might.

You can't explain it.
Made you weak,
Make your body wreak, ha!
You can't contain it,
What she's got.
Man it's much too hot!

Everybody wants a piece of Jody...
Wants a taste of the cake,
Everybody wants from Jody,

All the love they can take.

The way she moves her hips,
Cannot be denied.
She says she's gonna love ya,
'Til you drop.

World's spinnin' 'round,
When you close your eyes.
Then you must be learnin'
How to fly.

It must voodoo,
How she got you wired,
Walking thru the fire.

And she just you,
You could lose your mind,
'Cause she's so damn fine!

Jody...
Jody...

Everybody wants you, baby.

Work, work! (8x)

You can't explain it.
Made you weak,
Make your body wreak, ha!

You can't contain it.
What she got,
Man, that's much too hot
