

They Should Have Named You Cocaine

Jerrod Niemann

They should have named you cocaine
You're all in my brain
Driving me insane
They should have named you cocaine

Cause eerytime I hold you,honey
I get so high and blow all my money
But I cant complain
Cause I'm feelin no pain

They should have named you cocaine
Got me writin all these songs
Stayin up all night long
List a fast moving train

I'm feelin no pain
They should have named you cocaine
