

Mr. Dream Merchant

Jerry Butler

Hey, Mr. Dream Merchant
Everything depends on you
Oh, hey, Mr. Dream Merchant
Bring her back to me
And make my dreams come true

When I said goodbye
To my love
I didn't mean to make her cry
I didn't realise that I had love
Now I need her by my side

Oh, hey, Mr. Dream Merchant
Everything depends on you
Oh, hey, Mr. Dream Merchant
Bring her back to me
And make my dreams come true

You should have told this fool
To stop it
You should have made this blind man see
I got my pride back in my pocket
Won't you bring him back to me?

Oh, hey, Mr. Dream Merchant
Everything depends on you
Oh, hey, Mr. Dream Merchant
Can't you make her see
We need each other?
I'm no good alone
I really really, really love her
Bring him back to me
And make my dreams come true

Can't you make her see
We need each other?
I'm no good alone
I really, really love her
Bring her back to me
And make my dreams come true
