

Take Me

Jerry Garcia

Take me, to your darkest room
Close every window and bolt every door
The very moment that I heard your voice
I'd be in darkness no more

Take me, to your most barren desert
A thousand miles from the nearest sea
The very moment that I saw your smile
It'd be like heaven to me

There's not any mountain too rugged to climb
No desert too barren to cross
Darling, if you would just show a sign
Of love, I could bear the load

Take me, to Siberia
In the coldest weather of the wintertime
It would be just like spring in California
To know your love was still mine

There's not any mountain too rugged to climb
No desert too barren to cross
Darling, if you would just show a sign
Of love, I could bear the load

Take me, to Siberia
In the coldest weather of the wintertime
It would be just like spring in California
To know your love would be mine

It would be just like spring in California
To know your love would be mine
