

Last Night I Fell In Love Again

Jerry Jeff Walker

Last night I fell in love again and I didn't think I could
I thought by now I was probably over that for good
With too much on my mind, too many things to do
Then last night I fell in love again with you

I heard love comes in waves, each one stronger than the one before
But I never thought that was true, 'til I took a real good look at you
It wasn't what you were doing, it was the way I looked at you
Then last night I fell in love again with you

He said a foolish man will take love for granted
While a wiser man might try and let her know
For if love's a seed that's planted in the heart and soul
Then you give it some attention, it has a better chance to grow

Talkin' with a friend the other day, he said his love had slowly slipped away
Because he never took the time, to do the little things you need to make love stay
And I thought of me and you and all the things that we'd been through Since the first night I fell in love with you

So last night I looked at you brand new and I saw all the reasons why I married you What a lovely woman you turned into and how lucky I am to be in love with you
And I'm taking time to say just how much I do
'Cause last night I fell in love again with you And tonight I'm gonna do the same thing too
