Northeast Texas Women

Jerry Jeff Walker

Say if you're South of Oklahoma, east of New Mexico, West of Louisiana, where Papa Charles always go
We gotta a little place called Texas
Where the women grow on trees
There right there for the pickin' good buddy
Just as easy as a man could please

Run take a hold You're gonna get young 'fore ya get old Those Texas ladies are Texas gold Kisses that are sweeter than cactus Take no practice to love yeah

Now there east of Amarillo, a little south of old Dime Box You can find a Cinderella Or a genuine Goldilocks And if ya don't like no love attachments, If your taste in women gets strange You could probably find some things to live on, Down in old La Grange

Run take a hold You're gonna get young 'fore ya get old Those Texas ladies are Texas gold Kisses that are sweeter than cactus Take no practice to love yeah

You better run tell the world You gotta have a Lone Star girl With her cast iron curls Her aluminum dimples Cause she's so simple to love

Now she's probably in Dallas, maybe down in old Cowtown I've heard em tell Texas women

Beat the others lyin' down

I just thought I might tell you

In case you were unaware
'Bout those northeast Texas women

With their cotton candy hair

Run take a hold You're gonna get young 'fore ya get old Those Texas ladies are Texas gold Kisses that are sweeter than cactus Take no practice to love yeah

You run dig a hole, You gonna get young before you get old Now Texas women are Texas gold Ah there sweeter than cactus

Easy to love, yeah, easy to love Easy to love

Run take a hold You're gonna get young 'fore ya get old Those Texas ladies are Texas gold Kisses that are sweeter than cactus Take no practice to love yeah

You run tell the world, How you'll get Lone star girls With their cast iron curls, She's sweeter than cactus And easy to love
