

She Left Me Holdin'

Jerry Jeff Walker

Well, yes, I guess the blues got me
Brought me pretty low this time
Down to where I'm tellin' you
Everything that's one my mind

She kept telling me
If I need to be so free
Well, I can just go off on my own

All she left me holdin' was time on my hands
And all that left me livin' was half of the plans
Now all that's left for me to do
Is hold on to
Anything I think I can
But darling I love you . . .

Well, she's the kind
People find
Knows everything that's on your mind
And now she's gone
I guess this song
Will tell her how I feel this time

'Cause you know I can't be free
Knowin' that she's not with me
No, I just can't go on that way

All she left me holdin' was time on my hands
And all that left me livin' was half of the plans
Now all that's left for me to do
Is hold on to
Anything I think I can
But darling I love you . . .
