

All the Good Is Gone

Jerry Lee Lewis

It was only yesterday
That I noticed a sudden change
Even tonight when you touched me,
Everything seems strange

I've been worried for a long time,
That something might go wrong
Oh, it's happening,
I know it's happening
All the good is gone

All the good is gone
From the love we shared together
All the tenderness
Has disappeared from your lovin' heart

And now, I'll start lookin'
For another to take your place
And when each time I hold her
And feel her warm embrace

Warm memories of our good times,
When I loved you for so long
I remember, yes I remember
All the good is gone
Yes, I remember, honey I remember
All the good is gone
