

I'm Feeling Sorry

Jerry Lee Lewis

I told a little lie, baby I made you cry
That's why I'm feeling blue
I'm feeling sorry, I lied to you
I took your little heart, I tore it all apart
And now I'm missing you
I'm feeling sorry, I couldn't be true
I should've know better, I should have been truer
I know that you're blue, but baby I'm bluer
Now I got a little heart, that's broke all apart
And now I'm wanting you
I'm feeling sorry, and missing you

I put a tear or two in your eyes of blue
I wasted your true love
And now I'm sorry, just a fool in love
You were the one for me, but I felt fancy free
That's why I'm hurting so
I'm feeling sorry, I didn't know
You offered me true love, but I didn't take it
One way that you forgive me, but I'll never make it
I hope to find a way, baby to make you stay
But I know I'll never win
I'm feeling sorry, I'm just a friend
I'm feeling sorry, I'm just a friend
I'm feeling sorry, that I'm just a friend
