

There Must Be More To Love Than This

Jerry Lee Lewis

I wake up in the morning I'm still crying, yes I am
And on my lips I can taste your goodnight kiss
In my room the fragrance of your perfume lingers
And I know there must be more to love than this

I look across my lonely room and see your picture
Your loving smiling face I know I miss, yes I would darlin'
And I remembered to another "Your still married"
And I know there must be more to love than this

The ringing phone sounds like the doorbell to heaven, whoa lord

Your voice sounds like an angel full of bliss
But I'll go through hell tonight if I don't see you
And I know

There must be more to love than stolen moments
This love it should have brought me happiness
Ever since we started lovin' I've started hurtin' hurtin', hurt in'
And I know there must be more to love than this
Yes I know there must be more to love than this
