

You Can Have Her

Jerry Lee Lewis

Well you can have her, I don't want her,
She didn't love me, anyway
She only wanted, someone to play with,
But I needed a love to stay

The woman I loved, up and left me,
Ran away with my best friend
Sneakin' in at night, for just one hour, and daylight come,
She's out gettin' it again

Well you can have her, I don't want her,
She didn't love me, anyway
She only wanted, someone to play with,
All I needed, was a love to stay

Well if you get, the wrong woman,
Only one thing that you can do
Dig yourself a hole, jump right in it,
Pull the ground right over you

Well you can have her, I don't want her,
She didn't love me, anyway
She only wanted, someone to play with,
'Til I needed, a love to stay

Well you can have her, I don't want her,
She didn't love me, anyway
She only wanted, someone to play with,
All I needed, was a love to stay
