Dommage, Dommage (Too Bad, Too Bad)

Jerry Vale

Dommage, Dommage Our love was once exciting Now it's just a game we play. Too bad, too bad But nothing lasts forever All at once We lost our way. Hello, goodbye And suddenly it's over And there's nothing we can do. Dommage, Dommage But may your next attempt at love Come true

Hello, goodby And suddenly it's over And there's nothing we can do. Dommage Dommage Too bad we couldn't Make our dreams come true.
