

People Will Go

Jes

Nobody listens
Nobody cares about it anymore
Jealousy
And I don't even know your name
But everybody gets it
In a blink it leaves you cold in the night
Jealousy
And I don't even know your name
Burned into your memory

Burned into your memory
People will go
People will come
People will lead you till your heart is numb
Reach for me
People will go
People will come
People will lead you till your heart is numb
Reach for me
I know exactly what you're thinking
