

Havoc In Heaven

Jesca Hoop

Red ribbon on witch we ride carry us over horizon as the sun setting night puts on a phantom cloak sing violet light and evoke the protection that violet emotes fasten your focus on your sole cause is your fruit and flowers on red ribbon swift justice comes delivery white bone demon ohhh ohhh

begun the havoc in heaven deep deep deep in the green sea there is a weapon for me a pin that is fixing the sea a pillar gold shiny and if I can pull it free the kudjel is coming with me

Fasten heave ho pillar of gold runs through the deepest darkest stone kudjel undone weighing one ton begun the havoc in heaven

ohhh ohhh begun the havoc in heaven don't believe your eyes when the maiden does arrive you fool she is the enemy do not trust the guise of a woman old and wise for truly she is the white bone demon

Dance makaku's (monkeys) round the fire warrior drums banchee cryers
call to them visions of her piar fulled by the demons throne we shall subdue her to bone and ashes to ashes her home

cause is your fruit and flowers home and in one blow I smite down my foe and ashes to ashes welcome home
