

Why Me

Jess Glynne

Time
It never was enough, no time
I always tried to fit around your life
With no consideration over mine, mine
No wrong
Everything was right and now it's gone
Like a tree, it cut me down and let me go
Like I was always banned from sayin' no
No-no, no

Drownin' in the darkest grey
With no answer to rescue me
I'm holdin' it down
I'm holdin' it down
Foolin' with no one to blame
You left me here without a trace
When I held you down
I held you down

So tell me why me?
I didn't even know
Why me?
You left me all alone
So cold
So cold

You stole
My happiness from underneath my nose
My insecurities left on the floor
And didn't think for a second, oh no, no-no

Drownin' in the darkest grey
With no answer to rescue me
I'm holdin' it down
I'm holdin' it down
Foolin' with no one to blame
You left me here without a trace
When I held you down
I held you down

So tell me why me?
I didn't even know
(And you still won't love me)
Why me?
You left me all alone
(So why'd you leave me?)
So cold
So cold

Why me?
I didn't even know
Why me?
You left me all alone
And now
Why me?
I didn't even know
Why me?

You left me all alone

So tell me why me?

I didn't even know

(And you still won't love me)

Why me?

You left me all alone

(So why'd you leave me?)

Why me?

I didn't even know

(And you still won't love me)

Why me?

You left me all alone

(So why'd you leave me?)
