

No Show

Jess Moskaluke

One time is more than enough to leave me sitting at a bar with a bottle of wine
All alone
Shame on you when you did it once
Shame on me when you did it twice
No show, no no show

You can knock knock knock but the curtain's drawn
You can beg beg beg but it's all you've got
Standing on my porch waiting for the word
Oh no, oh oh no, oh no
Don't want a no show

Well it's half past sorry you're a little late
Gonna lay in the bed you know the one you made
All alone
You better leave me alone

You can knock knock knock but the curtain's drawn
You can beg beg beg but it's all you've got
Standing on my porch waiting for the word
Oh no, oh oh no, oh no
Don't want a no show

One time is more than enough to leave me sitting at a bar with
a bottle of wine
All alone
You can knock knock knock but the curtain's drawn
You can beg beg beg but it's all you've got
Standing on my porch waiting for the word
Oh no

You can knock knock knock but the curtain's drawn
You can beg beg beg but it's all you've got
Standing on my porch waiting for the word
Oh no, oh oh no, oh no
Don't want no show
