

Lucinda

Jesse Malin

I got a message
Oh as I was told
Summer's fadin'
And California seems old

Lucinda, Lucinda
A child of the water
Lucinda, Lucinda
A child of the sea

In the ocean
It's where it all begins
With sweet emotion
We try and drink away our sins

Lucinda, Lucinda
A child of the water
Lucinda, Lucinda
A child of the sea

And I will always be around
And you can lay your burden down

The bus is waiting
The folks are going home
We're celebrating
Save your life by playing rock'n roll

Lucinda, Lucinda
A child of the water
Lucinda, Lucinda
A child of the sea
Lucinda, Lucinda
A proud poet's daughter
Lucinda, Lucinda
The trick is you and me

Wherever we might roam
I will always be alone
To some degree
